Dear Friends,

Following our latest newsletter, we wish to draw your attention to two important news: the Susanna Wesley Foundation is now recruiting a Research Officer. Below you find access to their job description and application details. We are also excited to let you know that registration for the launch of the Theological Action Research Field Guide is now open! You will find more information below. Finally, we wish to remind you of the upcoming Theological Action Research Training Day on 20th November. Our offer for Early Bird tickets will end soon.

Peace and Gratitude,

Stefanie on behalf of the TARN-team

Launch of the Theological Action Research Field Guide: registration is now open!

Friday, 12th December 2025, 14:00 - 15:00 pm (GMT) on Zoom.

To book yourself a ticket free of charge, please follow this link.

Stefanie is currently working on a Theological Action Research Field Guide, to which people across the network have contributed. Funded by the Susanna Wesley Foundation, this multi-authored work is aimed at doctoral students and practitioners working with theological action research. The field guide offers practical guidance, exercises and experiential vignettes that will enable and encourage you as you master your own project and research journey. For more information, please visit our website.

A link to download the guide will be made available at the launch.

This is what other people say about our TAR trainings:

"Three key insights: "Be prayerfully attentive to the data. The formal voice can include other disciplines. TAR is about discernment through conversation."

"The exercises in groups and general session were informative. I really loved the polyphonic and dialogical nature of the methodology. Stimulating and inspiring."

"I have definitely learned about the power of conversational method through this training especially group conversations we had."
